THE CHILD KILLED

Daughter of Rev. Snow, of Kirksey, Has Her Neck Broken.

Was Hanging on a Buggy When it Crushed Her Against a Tree Near the Road.

HER FATHER CANNOT BE LOCATED

Orn, the 6-year-old daughter of Rev. C. L. Snow of Kirksey, Calloway county, Ky., was instantly killed last evening about 6 o'clock. The child and an older brother, who is 14, were playing with a buggy, and the little girl was hanging to the rear end of the vehicle, while the older brother was pushing it down a hill.

It seems that the buggy took a short cut, and leaving the road ran against a tree and caught the child between the rear end of the buggy and the tree and broke her neck, killing her instantly.

Rev. Snow, the child's father, is a noted Mormon evangelist, and is on his way to South Pittsburg, Tenn., and had not at last accounts been located by telegraph. He left home to be away until about October on the morning the child was killed, on a tour through North Carolina and other states.

MOODY CONFESSED

Postal Clerk Running Between Paducah and Evansville in Jail.

Charged With Extracting $104 From a Letter Mailed at Lola, Ky May 9th.

HELD BY U. S. COMMISSIONER HERE

Charles E. Moody, a postal clerk running on the steamer Joe Fowler between Paducah and Evansville, was yesterday arrested at his home in Shawneetown, Ill., by Postoffice Inspector Sherman C. Kile of Louisville, on a serious charge that will probably land him in the penitentiary.

Moody this morning was brought to the city and taken before U. S. Commissioner Arthur Gardner for a preliminary trial. He confessed to taking $104 from a registered letter, and was held to answer. The letter was mailed at Lola, Ky., and addressed to the postmaster at Evansville. It was placed upon the boat at Carrsville, Ky., on May 9th, when young Moody is supposed to have torn it open and extracted the contents. He failed to give the $1,000 bond, and is in jail here. There are similar charges against him in Illinois, and he will have to appear before the federal authorities there next, as he is charged with having opened three letters addressed to persons in that state, the total amount alleged to have been taken from the three letters being $120, $60 from one, $40 from another and $20 from the last. The penalty for the offense is from one to five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. Moody is apparently only eighteen or twenty years old. He does not seem to realize the gravity of his offense.

CIRCUIT COURT.

JOE BILLINGS LOSES HIS SUIT AGAINST THE FURNITURE COMPANY.

The argument in the Joe Billings against the Paducah Furniture Mfg. Co. case was finished this morning and the jury returned a verdict for the defendant after being out a short time only. This is the last jury case to be tried this term and all petit jurors were discharged. Billings is the small boy who got a hand taken off while employed at the furniture factory and asked for $25,000 damages.

In the case of the McCormick Harvesting Machine Co. against H. C. Hartley the report of the special commissioner was filed and ordered to lie over for three days for exceptions.

PLAY GOLCONDA.

LOCAL BASEBALL TEAM TO CROSS BATS WITH POPE COUNTY BOYS.

The local baseball club will go to Golconda tomorrow to play the Golconda team. The Golconda boys have been wanting a game for some time with the big team, but the boys were not in condition heretofore. A junior team was defeated several weeks ago and the Golconda boys think they will have an easy thing, judging from the game the minor team put up. A good crowd of rooters will accompany the local team.

John H. Burnett, the newly appointed magistrate to succeed the late Justice Nat J. Harris, qualified today, giving Messrs. J. E. Potter, C. R. Hall and J. C. Poyer as surety.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Clearings the past week, $473,285. Same week last year, $479,939. Decrease, $6,654.

Business at the banks, with one holiday, was very good the past week. Deposits are holding up well, with earnings good.

The Bank and Trust company will show open their doors for business Monday with very flattering prospects. The company has a very strong directory, and some substantial stockholders, and will rank as one of Paducah's best institutions.

Wholesale trade is a little quiet at present. The farmers are very busy in the fields, and are doing but little buying and, as a result the country merchants are holding up on their buying.

Retail trade in most lines is very good, especially in the dry goods line. Real estate continues active, and building trades are rushed with work.

EARLY CLOSING

Beginning Monday Retail Stores Will Close at 6 O'clock.

Retail Clerks and Merchants Efforts are Successful and all are Pleased.

Beginning Monday, June the 1st, all the retail stores will close at 6 o'clock every day in the week except Saturdays and pay day nights.

This is something the retail clerks and some of the merchants have been working for for some time. In every city of any importance in the country such is the rule. It is a wise one.

It gives the clerks more time for recreation and rest, and as a result they are better fitted for work.

Among the merchants agreeing to the early closing are the following: Walenstein Bros., Budy, Phillips and Co., Cochran Shoe Co., Purcell and Thompson, B. Wolfe and Son, L. B. Ogilvie and Co., Eley Dry Goods Co., Boldry and Roberts, G. D. Palmer, D. Desberger, E. Guthrie and Co., Wahl and Co., Harbour Pitts Shoe Co., John Doherty, Paducah Furniture Co., P. N. Gardner, Rhodes-Burford Co., J. L. Wolff, Wm. Nagel, Geo. O. Hart and Son, Warren and Warren, Hank Bros., John J. Bleich, Noah's Ark, Scott Hardware Co., Jas. W. Gleaves and Son, Lendler and Lydon, George Rock and Son, Henry Diehl, The Arcade.

SEEKING A RUNAWAY SON.

Marshal Crow this morning received a letter from J. N. Cook, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., asking the whereabouts of his son, Richard Cook, age 13, who left that place over three weeks ago with a man named C. H. Dorsee. Marshal Crow had not seen any one who knew of the boy's whereabouts but will have the police keep a lookout for him.

TWO BURGLARIZED

Merchants at Folsomdale, Graves County, Sent for Bloodhounds.

Thieves Break Into 2 Establishments and Get Away With Money and Goods.

Last night the mercantile establishments of W. A. Garton and Bro. and J. C. Sellers and Co., at Folsomdale, Ky., about one mile from Boaz station, Graves county, were broken into and about $50 and some goods taken. The local police were notified of the robbery early this morning, when bloodhounds were sent for. It was impossible to secure any here and an unsuccessful attempt was made to procure some in Fulton.

The Garton store was entered by means of a back window, the burglars prying off the shutter, bending the iron bars and breaking out the window. The cash drawer was robbed of between $30 and $50, the exact amount not being known, and a quantity of goods taken. The Sellers store was entered in the same way, and about $20 in cash taken and some goods. The robbery was discovered this morning when the proprietors went to open up their stores, and everything was well protected and the people kept off the grounds until bloodhounds could be procured. The local police are quietly at work on the job, and think they have the right persons spotted.

DIED OF CANCER.

Senator Campbell Cantrill has been tipped as a candidate, but he stated positively that he would not be in the race.

TO PERISH IN FLAMES.

During the engagement of Pain's big spectacle, "The Last Days of Pompeii," in this city, on one of the nights will be shown a huge fireworks portrait of one of Paducah's handsomest and most popular society ladies. While, of course, propriety prevents the announcement of any name in connection with the fiery likeness, there will be no difficulty in the lady's friends among the spectators immediately recognizing the handsome features of the original. This big "pyrotechnic photograph" will be 20x40 feet in size, and will show all the colors known to the art of pyrotechny. This is only one of the many novelties of local interest that will be shown during the stay of the big show in this city.

IT WAS NOT CROUCH

Tom Allison Believed Now to Have Been Drowned Here.

He Came to Paducah to Become Second Engineer on the Clyde—Last Seen Going Toward the Boat.

RAY CROUCH ALIVE AND WELL

Coroner Peal believes he has found out to a certainty who the unknown man was who was drowned off the Clyde Tuesday night. The theory that it was Ray Crouch, second mate on the steamer Charleston, proved erroneous, as his father, Captain J. A. Crouch, telegraphed yesterday afternoon that the young man was alive and well at Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee.

Yesterday Coroner Peal was informed that the unfortunate victim was in all probability Tom Allison, who came here to go on the Clyde as second engineer. He made an investigation, resulting in the disclosure of facts that convinced him that Allison is the man.

A Sun reporter this morning made inquiry, and learned that Allison came to Paducah from Cincinnati Tuesday afternoon and began to drink. He was on the Avalon as second engineer, but resigned the position to accept a similar place on the Clyde at the solicitation of his cousin, Engineer J. W. Dozier, of the Clyde. Allison stopped at Mrs. Phil Best's boarding house on South Second street, and was there early in the evening on Tuesday, leaving and not returning again until later in the night, when he was let in by Mr. David Kennedy, Mrs. Best's son. Some time during the night he left again, however, and did not come down for breakfast. This is all that Mrs. Best could tell of him, but from Mr. Marion Clark, bartender at the Griffith and Garrison saloon, on South Third street, near Broadway, comes a story that will shed more light on the matter. Allison came into the saloon Tuesday night about 11 o'clock intoxicated, and wanted to be directed to the Best boarding house. Mr. Clark gave him the desired information, but Allison did not leave, but slept in a chair until about 12 o'clock, when the saloon was closed.

Condnotor Atwood of the N. C. and St. L. was with Mr. Clark, and both tried to get Allison to go to the boarding house, which he refused to do, saying that he had to go out on the Clyde Wednesday, and would go there. He started down Third street towards the river, and this is the last seen of him. The unknown man, according to Mate Barnes of the Fowler, was drowned at 12:25 o'clock. The next day, when Mr. Clark read the account of the man drowned at the wharf, he felt certain that Allison was the victim.

Mrs. Dozier, wife of his cousin, said that Allison had come to the Henneberger house about 11 o'clock drunk, but left immediately, and this is the last she heard of him.

He lived at Kingston, East Tennessee, but had been running on the Ohio for some time. He had a brother, Mr. Ab Allison, also an engineer, and both stopped at the Best house when in the city. Nothing whatever has been heard of the missing man since he left the Garrison saloon, and the supposition is that he went to the boat and fell overboard.

Excursion to Great Springs on account of opening ball Friday, June 6. The Illinois Central will run $1 round trip excursion, leaving Paducah at 12:15, good returning next morning at 3, or 12 p. m. Saturday.

The Week in Society.

The Doings of the Smart Set the Past Six Days.
Pleasant Events and Personal Mention.

THE FINISHING TOUCH.

I.
Jehovah made the world and then Created man to govern there,
And it was glorious May time, when
The songs of birds were in the air;
The shimmering lakes were sweet and blue,
O'er all the slopes the green grass grew,
The leafy vistas all were fair.

II.
Jehovah heard a little sigh,
And presently a woman stood Beside the lonely man and, high Above, God saw that it was good.
Her sweet breath touched his cheek
Who turned,
And, as she blushed, with joy discerned
The loveliness of womanhood.

III.
But God looked down again where they Went hand in hand along the fair,
Green slopes and plains that stretched away,
And saw leaves fastened in her hair—
Then God, to please her, bending low,
Made all the flowers that sweetly blow.
And left them in their gladness there.

ACTION AND REACTION.

Society effervesced last week, and seems to have forgotten this week that it ever did sparkle and bubble and froth, it is all dregs now. Evidently the arrival of "blackberry winter" has not had an exhilarating effect. Possibly, though, this inertia is due to an utter collapse produced by last week following hard upon the carnival week. Everyone was tired out with that, and but for the presence of visitors would have rested then; however they could not with the necessity of playing hostess staring them in the face, and were up and doing all day long—making night as the day. So exhaustion resulted, and now, perforce, they must pause awhile and rest. This is sleepy weather, too, and no one cares very much if there is "nothing doing" just so they can be as stupid as they wish and sleep the "tired feeling" off.

For the coming week there is little in view but it may prove to be very gay after all as this is the season of informal affairs and even the largest ones are not announced far ahead. So no one knows or can tell what a week may bring forth.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

The event of especial social interest for the coming week is the marriage of Miss Mira R. Gould to Mr. Leffert Lefferts Buck of New York, which will be solemnized at Grace Episcopal church on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Bishop T. U. Dudley of Louisville will perform the ceremony. It will be a wedding distinguished for its charm and its simplicity, and will be witnessed by as representative a gathering as if it were an evening affair, the bride's friends being legion. The attendants are Master Elbridge Palmer of the city and Master William Gould, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the bride's nephews, and little Miss Mary Terry Burnett of Paducah who will carry the bride's prayer book. The ushers are Mr. George Langstaff, Mr. T. J. Flournoy, Mr. Dennis Macquod, and Mr. William Bradshaw, Jr. The bride will enter with her brother, Mr. William T. Gould of Brooklyn, N. Y. who will give her away. She will wear white chiffon over white silk.

Miss Gould belongs to one of the oldest and most representative families of Paducah, and while reflecting the culture of a line of notable ancestors has a delightful spontaneity all her own that endears her to every one. She is rarely lovable and gracious and has made friends wherever her life has touched.

Mr. Buck was a distinguished soldier in the Civil war, and since has made his name an international one as the greatest living authority on bridge building. The wonderful bridge over East River was his work. He stands high in New York and is a fine and representative man.

They will leave for the east at noon and will spend the summer in a beautiful old colonial home on the Hudson.

PICNIC AT LA BELLE PARK.

A very delightful picnic was enjoyed by a crowd of young society people at La Belle park on Friday. Wirta, the young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, is a promising actress. The Bowling Green Times-Journal of last Tuesday said of her: "Our citizens are still discussing with unabated interest the wonderful dramatic talent of little Wirta Robinson. This wonderful child has for several years been the pride of her native state, Arkansas, where she is so well known as the 'Child Elocutionist,' and in her debut on the stage in the title role of the Potter college senior class play last Friday evening at Potter opera house, she completely won the hearts of all that vast audience. 'Beautiful,' 'wonderful,' were the words heard on every hand, and there were tears in many eyes when she closed the second act with that pathetic scene. This gifted child promises to be a brilliant star in the future. She will continue her work next year in Potter college." Dr. and Mrs. Robinson are very proud of their daughter, who is attractive, as well as talented.

"Mrs. Prentiss Dana Cheney, of Maryland, avenue, is at present the guest of Mrs. Victor Veris, of Paducah, Ky., where she has been the guest of honor at a number of pretty functions lately. One of these had a novel and pretty feature. It was a euchre, and there was a prize for each month in the year. The April prize fell to Mrs. Cheney and was a lovely coaching parol. For February the prize was a portrait of George Washington, and so on, each gift being appropos of the month which it represented. This is a new and pretty feature and one which gives unlimited scope to originality and ingenuity of the hostess."

BOARD MET LAST NIGHT TO DECIDE ON SOME OF THE MATERIAL.

Trustees Perryman, Noble, Wellie and Savage, of the public library board, met last night to decide on some of the material to be used on the building. The American-Spanish works of tiling was selected, marble columns and wainscoting for the lobby were decided on, and standard buff pressed brick will be used. It is announced that the plans for the library will be ready in two weeks.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

WHERE IS THE THIRD GOOSE?

WITH THE THEATERS.

It will be with great pleasure that the many friends of Miss Alma C. Hays of this city learn that she will make her first appearance on any stage Monday night at The Kentucky, singing "Fleeing Days" and "I Love Thee So."

Manager English announced several days ago that he had a pleasant surprise in store for his patrons next week, and after lengthy negotiations finally gained the consent of Miss Hays to make her appearance as above, singing during the intermissions of the production of that powerful drama, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

In presenting this play the English Stock company is becoming very ambitious, as the following cast will prove:

CAST.

Dr. Jekyll—Mr. Hyde—Mr. James. Mr. Utterson—Mr. Harmon. Rev. Mr. Howells—Mr. Grigg. Dr. Lanyon—Mr. Seaton. Mr. Poole—Mr. Forsythe. Inspector Nancecomb—Mr. Grigg. O'Brien, a policeman—Mr. Florence. Mrs. Gregg, an old hag—Miss Field. Maria, housemaid—Miss Stockton. Sarah, a cook—Miss Field. Sibyl, Mr. Howells's daughter—Miss Oale.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is a character drama adapted from Robert Louis Stevenson's great story, and as a drama was made famous by Mr. Richard Mansfield. The story, while gruesome, is most interesting to witness.

Dr. Jekyll was a most lovable and Christian-like man, a great physician who studied the science of his profession and at last concocted a drug which could transform a man into a beast. He himself imbibed so much of this drug that he became a slave to it and at times became so transformed that he lived in two forms of man, that of Dr. Jekyll, the beloved of all, and that of Mr. Hyde, the hideous being who caused all people to shrink from him in horror, committing most horrible deeds—trampling little children under foot, and committing all kinds of murder. He at last disclosed the secret to his enemy, Dr. Lanyon, who was so shocked at the transformation that he was stricken with immediate death, and the secret was never disclosed to the world, and finally Mr. Hyde was found dead in his laboratory, having become completely enveloped with the destroying drug.

Mr. James, who achieved an immense success in this character during the run in Boston two years ago, will again appear in this double role.

During the evening Miss Justina Wayne will give an entirely new specality, presenting a song from Alice Nelson's great opera, "The Singing Girl," using for this occasion an exact counterpart costume as worn by Miss Nelson, a boy's white silk knickerbocker suit, and the costume will be the prettiest that this beautiful little lady has yet worn.

Mr. Leo Florence and Mr. Grigg will also have new specialties and with Miss Hays the vanishing features of Monday night will be a winner.

One of the largest crowds of the week witnessed "Miss Moniton" at The Kentucky last night and were delighted with the performance. Mr. Forasthe, who was ill the preceding night, was able to appear, and his work greatly strengthened the play. There was a marked improvement all around, and patrons of The Kentucky fully appreciated the entertainment. Tonight "Miss Moniton" will be presented for the last time. "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be presented the first three nights of next week, and "The Ironmaster" the last three.

Those who witnessed "Mr. Young of Utah" at La Belle park theatre last night came away highly pleased with the play and the performance. On Monday the company will present the romantic western drama, "Trise, or The Angel of Mine Canyon." This is a play of entirely different style from any heretofore presented, and no doubt the change will be acceptable to the people. The play is full of fine situations, has a fine story and abounds in humor and comedy. New and more specialties will be introduced and the whole bill is a very strong one.

WHY STAY PALE?

A pity to see pale girls stay pale and dull when it is so easy to get Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion does a few things well. One of them is to give rich red blood to pale girls. There is a reason for it.

But perhaps you are more interested in results than in reasons.

The result of steady daily doses of Scott's Emulsion is an increase not only in the red color of the blood and in the appetite but in the good looks and bright manners which are the real charm of good health.

Scott's Emulsion is blood food.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

Important Recommendations to be Made by Building Committee.

An Effort May be Made to Sell the School Edifice at Fifth and Court Streets.

A REPORT IS NOW READY

The school board will meet Tuesday night in regular session, and the most important business that will be brought up will be the report of Mr. Ben Weille and Architect Brainerd relative to the trip to St. Louis they took Monday.

Mr. Weille was prepared the report, with the assistance of the architect, and the following are some of the suggestions that will be offered in the report: First the city schools are found to be too small, compared with the schools of the cities where everything is arranged for convenience and health, and the ventilation and heating plants are defective. The report will recommend that no more eight room schools be built, and buildings of from fourteen to sixteen rooms be erected altogether. Next year one building will probably be erected, while an addition will be built to another and the Long-fellow school, at Fifth and Court streets, will be sold, if possible, as it will not be needed in that district.

This will be one important recommendation, and Chairman Weille will try to sell the building to the city, the location being the best for an office building for the city officials. The fan system of heating and furnishing fresh air will be recommended and there is no doubt but that it will be adopted. The fan system furnishes two tons of air to a building every minute, and taking an ordinary sized room with the usual seating capacity, will furnish thirty pounds of air to each pupil every minute. In the winter the air is heated by a system of coiled steam pipes, and in the summer the fresh air is thrown in. After an examination of the many different heating systems, this is considered the best, and meets with the approval of both the board architect and Chairman Weille.

The janitors are now receiving only $30 and $35 per month for their work, and this is not considered sufficient. A recommendation will be made to increase the salary, as some of the buildings are hard to keep in good condition, and the work is much heavier than labor of other classes where more money is received. It is claimed by the janitors that they do not receive enough to support their families with, and if the salary is not raised there will be trouble in securing a good man, and one who will remain with the job.

The report and recommendations above mentioned and the regular routine work and allowance of bills will be about all of importance done.

THROAT CUT

But the Wound Inflicted by Jennie Adkins, is Not Serious.

Yesterday's Crowd on the Decoration Day Excursion Was Orderly.

There was a cutting affray on the steamer Dick Fowler yesterday while the boat was en route to Moon City with the decoration day excursion.

Jennie Bell Adkins and Pete Miller, colored, both of Paducah, got into a dispute over the woman's sister and before the argument had gone far ended up in a fight. The Adkins woman pulled out a knife and cut Miller's neck. The wound was a long one, extending from the back of his neck around under his chin and narrowly missed cutting into his wind pipe. The fight happened between Joplin and Metropolis and when Cairo was reached a doctor was summoned and took eight stitches to close the wound. Miller and the Adkins woman's sister got off the boat at Moon City on the return and the woman who did the cutting returned to the city. No arrests were made.

There were very few fights on yesterday's excursion, and none was serious except the above. It was an unusually orderly crowd.

DIED OF CONGESTION.

DAILY THOUGHT.

In life's small things be resolute and great.—Success.

A NEW CITY HALL.

The probable recommendation of the building committee of the board of education that the school building at Fifth and Court streets be sold is doubtless a good one. The site is one of the most valuable in the city, and as it will soon be useless as a school, the opinion of the committee, nothing better could be done than for the city to purchase it. The present city hall is too small, and is about the most unattractive public building that could be found anywhere, with the possible exception of our city hospital. The several new buildings that are to be erected here in the near future will throw completely into eclipse the city hall, which is a common, barn-like structure, thoroughly out of place and date as the principal public building in the city the size of Paducah. As the finer buildings go up its ugliness and insignificance will be brought out into stronger relief, and the city might as well take time by the forelock and buy the school property a block away, and convert it into a city hall, or tear it down and erect an entirely new building. There is now not enough room in the present city hall, and some of the offices will have to be established in the dwelling house adjoining. There will never be any less need of office room than there now, but will soon be much more. The present structure is an antiquated affair, heated by stoves and with few conveniences. The city should take steps at once to get the school property, or some equally as desirable, for there will likely be more than one ready to gobble it up when it is placed on the market.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

President Roosevelt's address at Arlington cemetery yesterday was replete with the sound, straightforward sentiments that he never fails to forthrightly express on all occasions. It was a memorial address appropriate to Decoration day, it touched, principally on the army, and was in memory of those of it who gave up all that was dear to them in the cause of right as they saw it. It was therefore not inopportune to dwell to some extent on the treatment of the present soldiers who are fighting and in some instances dying for their country. We annually hold services to pay tribute to the memory of the brave men who fought and bled for our country. It is but meet that while laying the wreath upon the grave of the soldier who fell nearly half a century ago, we remember the one who is today following the banner of freedom in a far off country, while some of his countrymen at home are accusing him of everything mean and despicable. These soldiers need some display of fairness and friendliness now far more than they will years hence. The flowers that may be strewn on their graves in the years to come, will afford them no satisfaction, while fair treatment and encouragement now may go a long way towards making them braver and stronger, and consequently of more service to their country. President Roosevelt truthfully said:

"Just at this moment the army of the United States, led by men who served among you in the great war, is carrying to completion a small but peculiarly trying and difficult war in which is involved not only the honor of the flag, but the triumph of civilization over forces which stand for the black chaos of savagery and barbarism. The task has not been as difficult or as important as yours, but, oh, my comrades, the men in the uniform of the United States, who have for the last three years patiently and uncomplainingly championed the American cause in the Philippine Islands, are your younger brothers, your sons. They have shown themselves not unworthy of you, and they are entitled to the support of all men who are proud of what you did.

"These younger comrades of yours have fought under terrible difficulties and have received terrible provocation from a very cruel and very treacherous enemy."

President Roosevelt has already been accused of injecting politics into his memorial day address by the Democrats, but it is not a question of politics. He simply availed himself of the lesson taught. We should not malign the living soldier while we offer our flowers and tears to the dead. It is not a question of politics. It is a question of giving the men in blue who are fighting their country's battles the meed of praise to which their splendid records entitle them. We annually spend a day in paying tribute to our dead soldiers. Why should we spend days and weeks abusing the living?

As President Roosevelt said in his oration:

"This should no more be a party question than the war for the Union should have been a party question. At this moment the man in the highest office in the Philippine Islands is the vice governor, General Luke Wright, of Tennessee, who gallantly wore the gray in the Civil war and who is now working hand in hand with the head of our army in the Philippines, Adna Chaffee, who in the Civil war gallantly wore the blue. These two, and the men under them, from the north and from the south, in civil life and in military life, as teachers, as administrators, as soldiers, are laboring mightily for us who live at home. Here and there black sheep are to be found among them; but taken as a whole they represent as high a standard of public service as this country has ever seen. They are doing a great work for civilization, a great work for the honor and the interest of this nation, and, above all, for the welfare of the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands. All honor to them; and shame, thrice shame, to us if we fail to uphold their hands!"

The Labor Tribune is Paducah's latest newspaper. It's the official organ of local unions, and will appear every Friday. Mr. J. J. Bowers of Nashville, a talented young man, is editor, and promises an up-to-date, fair and fearless journal. The paper promises to prosper.

As the authorities failed to get St. Clair here from Indiana and fleece him, they might allow the slot machines to be installed again and fine the owner about $200 every three months as a license to do business. This would make a good pick-up.

The Kentucky board of health has agreed to suspend the quarantine against Indiana for ten days. It never was anything but a bluff from the start.

The Charleston Exposition Will Soon be a Thing of the Past.

It is Believed That the Big Display Has Been a Financial Success
After all.

WAS A GREAT ACCOMPLISHMENT

Charleston, S. C., May 31.—The South Carolina Interstate and West Indian exposition ends at 12 o'clock tonight, when President Wagener presses an electric button and the lights in the familiar structures grow dim for the last time. The exposition stands unique among American enterprises of the kind in that it has not been a financial failure. It is confidently believed that when the last claims against the company are settled the balance will be on the right side of the ledger. Since the gates were first opened the attendance has been up to all expected, and during the last three months particularly the crowds have been enormous. The visitors have come by hundreds from all parts of the South, and the North also contributed its full share of sightseers during the winter months.

Of even greater moment than the direct financial profits are the benefits the commercial interests of the country will derive from the exposition. The primary object of the enterprise was to advance the friendly relations and commercial intercourse between the United States and the West Indies. In this respect it has been a decided success. The various islands of the West Indies responded heartily to the invitation to send exhibits, and their displays have been among the most attractive of the big show. The main purposes of the exposition were furthered, moreover, by the fact that a considerable number of visitors from the North and other distant parts of the country extended their trip beyond Charleston to Cuba and other parts of the West Indies.

The success of the exposition is due primarily to the excellent management and to the hearty co-operation of every citizen of Charleston. Even before the gates were opened it was evident that the scope of the affair had become much larger than originally intended, but the managers were equal to the situation, as its subsequent success proved. During the entire period of six months, from the opening to the closing day, there has not been a single untoward happening to mar the successful career of the exposition. The crowds have been well handled, and neither the exposition management nor the citizens of Charleston have left anything undone that would contribute to the comfort and entertainment of the visitors.

ANOTHER CAUGHT

James Coy, one of the Safe Blowers, Under Arrest.

Caught in Evansville, and Identified as one of the Lola Robbers.

Smithland, Ky., May 31.—News was received here by telephone that James Coy, who is under arrest at Evansville, charged with being a pal of Charles Oliver, the Lola safe blow-er, in jail here, has been identified by John Lawton of Joy, this county, as being the other man that he drove to Lola. Coy was arrested at the instance of the government, as the postoffice at Lola was looted at the same time the safe was blown open and $1-200 carried away. Requisition papers for Coy's return were asked for by the officers here today.

MOST SUCCESSFUL FINANCIAL ENGAGEMENT IN NEW YORK'S HISTORY.

New York, May 31.—When the curtain falls at the Criterion Theatre tonight it will mark the close of what has been perhaps the most successful engagement financially in the theatrical history of New York. Since early last fall, when "Du Barry" made her bow to a New York audience, the theatre has been crowded at every performance, while seats could be obtained only two months in advance, unless the purchaser was willing to pay the exorbitant prices asked by ticket speculators. Despite the fact that interest in the piece has not abated a whit, Mrs. Leslie Carter is afraid that acting in warm weather may injure her health, and consequently has decided to end the wonderful run tonight. Mrs. Carter will rest until September, reviving the drama at the Republic theatre, when David Belasco assumes the management of that house.

SAILED FOR AFRICA.

A COMMISSION OF ENGINEERS SEEKING EXTENSION OF TRADE.

London, May 31.—By order of the colonial office a commission of engineers, experts in textiles, etc., sailed for South Africa today to investigate and report immediately on the requirements of that country under the new conditions and the prospects for the extension of British trade. The prompt action of the colonial office is believed to be the result of information recently received regarding the activity of American firms, chiefly engineering, electrical and mining concerns, who are preparing to dispatch heavy shipments to South Africa as soon as the cessation of hostilities is assured.

and all the employes. Mr. Ed Tyree,

The marine ways at Madison, with its surrounding shipyard, occupies nine acres. It was established in 1832, and has been in successful operation ever since. Since 1863 two hundred and ten steamboats have been built and as many more repaired. Some of the largest and finest on the river were built on these ways. There have been several owners, but in 1891 D. S. Barmore bought the plant and ran it successfully until 1900, when he sold to Ed J. Howard and Co., who have run the establishment with big success ever since. Captain G. W. Palmer has been treasurer and secretary at the marine ways at Madison since 1869.

HAS RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES

Observations

...at Random

The other day a resident of the county came to town, and among the things he saw that he had never seen before was a man who uses an ear trumpet. He didn't know what the thing was, but watching the man closely, he presently saw him unwind a tube from his neck and hand it to a friend he met, and then heard them talking together.

The young man finally turned to his companion, and pointing to the two men engaged in conversation, exclaimed: "Looky thar! Gol dinged ef these town fellers aint gettin' so blamed smart they carry their telephones around with 'em all the time!"

Doctors are often called out in the dead hours of night for many queer things, but if there is anything calculated to hasten the inevitable state of pessimism that sooner or later fails to the lot of the average physician it is to get up in the dark, stumble around until the telephone is reached and then find out that central has made a mistake and it is something else that is wanted.

A night or two ago one prominent doctor heard the telephone bell ringing excitedly, and quietly wending his way to the hall, he said "hello" and was startled with the response: "Please send another half barrel around to Blank's right away. We've run out of beer." He didn't fill the order, but he said a few things that he didn't learn in the scriptures.

Another time he was aroused after a hard day's work and asked "How the cannonball to Louisville was." Once he was requested to "send a cah" to such and such a place, and once to "report at the round house for duty on an extra freight," and last, but not least, to "send the patrol wagon to West Court street."

He is getting so now he is used to it, and when he gets a call like the above he only magnanimously thinks of how sleepy "central" must be, to give some fellow the wrong number.

Those who think Paducah has an abundance of amusements already will perhaps be interested to know that arrangements were yesterday completed to bring an opera company here about July 1st for a several weeks' engagement. The project is not yet quite ripe, but the troupe is ready, and it will be placed neither at the park nor the Kentucky theatre, but at an entirely different place, giving us two stock companies and one opera to divert us during the summer evenings. If someone will just come along with a circus and a minstrel show and Buckskin Hill returns, our happiness ought to be complete.

A great many people think that the position of magistrate is an insignificant one, but it is not. A prominent magistrate, in speaking of the importance of the office, said the other day:

"The office of magistrate is one of the most important offices in the county, although the public is rather inclined to look upon it just the reverse. As far as the financial returns of such an office are concerned it is an inferior one, paying little and in accordance with the case brought in for trial; but all the money in the county treasury is in the hands of the magistrates, and at their will they can place the county in a very embarrassing position. The handling of all the county funds lies with the board of magistrates, the fiscal court, and if the people should elect a board of unscrupulous magistrates, or one incapable of properly handling the business, she would soon be in a tight place and might go bankrupt. Since I have been on the finance committee of the board I have been enabled to see the whole thing and it is not an easy matter to handle the financial affairs of the county."

When a man says he had forgotten all about that little loan you just returned he is a liar.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

The essential quality of powerful herbs, effective, reliable and harmless in nature, simplicity and safety.

It is a concentrated essence best adapted for women's delicate organism, and put in such form that it is not only palatable, but can be properly assimilated and taken into the system. Suppressed, irregular, painful menstruation, irregularity of the menses and sickly flows are corrected and cured by the regular administration of this superior emmenagogue.

Menstruation, or periodic flows, necessitate a breaking down of cells lining the mucous membrane and a reconstruction after every sickness, which is accompanied with marked congestion and loss of blood. Such changes are very apt to produce chronic catarrh, leucorrhoea or Whites in the result of these irritating discharges. Regulator cures these troubles and restores to perfect health the patient who suffers the debilitating losses. Buy of druggists. 50¢ per bottle.

NOTES OF THE RAILROADS

There is only one patient in the Illinois Central hospital who is seriously ill to be jubel. The road is being run unusually smoothly, and the health of the thousands of employees was never better.

There is no usual at this time of the year beginning to talk of the Illinois Central's making a bid for the mail contract between New York and New Orleans, worth about $50,000 a year. The L. and N. has held it for several years.

Mr. L. I. Bumgardner, the chief clerk in the master mechanic's department here, is ill, and yesterday was unable to be on duty. His many friends will regret to learn of his illness.

Engine 286, wrecked in the Memphis yards several months ago, was taken out of the shops this morning and looks like a new engine. It was pretty badly broken up and had to be taken all to pieces.

The private car of Mr. O. M. Denn, the assistant general manager of Southern lines of the Illinois Central, was brought to the city this morning early and taken to Louisville on the accommodation train No. 122. Mr.

Denn is on a trip of inspection.

The fast noon passenger train No. 102 was delayed over three hours after leaving here yesterday on account of the Stiles derailment. The wrecker made a quick job of the work but the engine and cars were in a bad position. The engine was off the tracks and all wheels resting on the ties.

POLICE COURT.

C. C. COURTNEY GOT OFF WITH A LIGHT FINE.

The breach of the peace case against C. C. Courtney, for beating his daughter, was the most important case before Judge Sanders today. Courtney received a fine of $5 and costs for his offense. His daughter was at the trial and testified that he had beaten her because she has been going with several girls to whom he objected.

Allen Walters, alias "dumny," was fined $1 and costs for being drunk. Bertha Edwards was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Hattie Summers, a negress, was fined $20 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. She was arrested by Officer Stonebreaker.

The cases against Robert McCormack and John Mix, one for breach of the peace and the other for vagrancy, were continued until Monday.

The Flag Pong Craze.

In London a ping pong dance, in which the ladies wear ping pong patches and powdered hair, is the latest development of the present mania.

The ladies, carrying white balls, with a red number on each, and each gentleman a scarlet ball, with a corresponding figure in white, walk down the ball room and meet at a silken net. Batting begins. As soon as each dancer secures a ball the numbers are called out, pairing off begins, and the couples glide down the room hand in hand, in minuet style.

The latest rival of ping pong by the way is table tennis, which are just being exhibited at the Alexandra palace.

Tennyson's Careful Writing.

Tennyson required two or three years to produce one of his longer poems, although the work of revision consumed a greater part of the time.
